

Q. Did you go to the home of Peter Bridge on that day, 24 August?

A. No, Z did not.

Q. Did you cause a search to be made of his premises? A. Yes.

Q. That was at 2 Cowan Road, Taree, is that right? A. Yes.

Q. Why did you search his premises? A. A number of allegations had been made concerning car parts.

Q. That was in relation to stolen car parts Sergeant, wasn't it?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you find any stolen car parts? A. I didn't go there.

Q. Well as far as you're aware as a result of the search were any stolen car parts found? A. I understand --

OBJECTION QUESTION PRESSED

BENCH: Q. Do you know whether any stolen car parts were found?

A. I understand there wasn't.

FOLEY: Q. Well if they had been found they'd be the subject of a charge, wouldn't they?

OBJECTION RELEVANCE QUESTION DISALLOWED

Q. Did you - in searching for - if you were making a search of number 1 Cornwall Street were you looking for stolen car parts at that place? A. No.

Q. You weren't. Did you receive any reliable information that Mrs Catt or her son were in possession of stolen car parts?

A. Yes.

Q. Who was that from?

15/05/1990 P-62 THOMAS XX

5.1124 D/1 VJD

BENCH: (Not transcribable).

FOLEY: It does become relevant - it will become relevant Your Worship as to part of this cross-examination.

BENCH: Yes, on that undertaking.

WITNESS: Well I don't wish to - I don't wish to volunteer the name of my Informant.

FOLEY: Q. You have one Informant, is that what you're saying?

BENCH: In relation to the stolen car parts.

FOLEY: Q. In relation to the stolen car parts, yes? A. Well I'll say it more correctly my Informants.

Q. You have a number of Informants about the stolen car parts? A. Yes.

Q. Is that correct? A. That's correct.

Q. How many? A. Two.

Q. Are they people who are giving evidence in this matter? A. Yes.

Q. Are they reliable people? A. I find them reliable people, Yes.